Conclusions

Respondents having admitted the jurisdictional facts and the parties having agreed to the entry of this decision, the decision will be entered.

Order

1. Respondents, its agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with activities subject to the Act, shall cease and desist from:

- (a) operating with a shortage in its custodial account in violation of 9 C.F.R. § 201.42(c), section 307(a) (7 U.S.C. § 208), and 312(a) (7 U.S.C. § 213) of the Packers and Stockyards Act; and
- (b) failing to deposit into its custodial accounts, within the time prescribed by section 201.42 of the Regulations (9 C.F.R. § 201.42), an amount equal to the proceeds receivable from the sale of consigned livestock and to the withdrawal of bank charges from their custodial account.

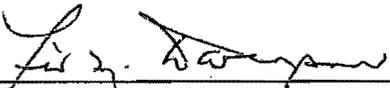

2. In accordance with section 312(b) of the Act (7 U.S.C. 213(b)), Respondents are assessed a civil penalty of $3,000.00 to be held in abeyance pending a 30-day suspension period and thereafter until Respondents demonstrate that the custodial account is currently in balance (to be verified by a GIPSA audit). If Respondents successfully comply with the suspension order and the GIPSA audit finds that that the custodial account is currently in balance, then no civil penalty will be payable to Complainant. However, if Respondents do not comply with the suspension order and/or the GIPSA audit finds that that the custodial account is currently not in balance, then the $3,000 civil penalty becomes immediately due and payable to Complainant. The suspension will take effect as of the day this consent decision becomes effective.

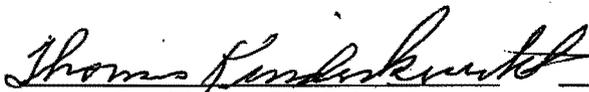

The provisions of this order shall become effective on the sixth day after service of this order on the Respondent.

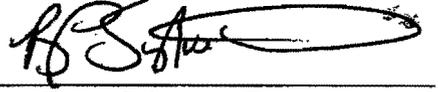

Copies of this decision shall be served upon the parties.
